Celebrating the 75th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

DECEMBER 6-8, 2023, PARIS FRANCE

This December will mark the 75th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR). While progress has been made over the last 75 years to provide greater protection for human rights, these rights remain under threat. To celebrate the ongoing relevance of the UDHR, the ABA International Law Section is partnering with the Paris Bar Association to present a three-day Conference that will focus on the achievements, challenges, and road ahead for the UDHR and human rights more generally, particularly from the perspective of businesses and their legal representatives.

On December 6 and 7, 2023, at the Maison du Barreau, the headquarters of the Paris Bar Association, the ABA International Law Section and the Paris Bar will present a series of seven panel sessions:

- ▶ International Human Rights: An Overview of the Terrain
- ▶ The Influence of Human Rights in the Private Sphere: How to Integrate International Human Rights into the Commercial Arena
- ▶ A Lawyer's Duty to Respect and Advise on Human Rights: To What Extent are Lawyers Bound Under Their Rules of Professional Conduct?
- ▶ Due Diligence: Requirements and Recommendations
- ▶ Climate Change and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights: Evolving Risks and Responses
- ▶ CSR, ESG, and the Practice of International Lawyering: Illuminating the Role of In-House Counsel and Human Rights Defenders
- ▶ Litigating Human Rights Violations: What Business Needs to Know

Conference Highlights:

- ▶ Networking coffee breaks, Wednesday reception, and Thursday lunch at Maison du Barreau
- ▶ Thursday dinner at Le Procope, the oldest café in Paris
- ▶ Two Friday morning sessions focused exclusively on human rights
- ▶ Friday afternoon tour of the Louvre focused on art and justice
