Jamie Jamison is a dedicated, compassionate, and knowledgeable advocate to clients experiencing the challenges of divorce, separation, custody, and support. Ms. Jamison practices exclusively in the area of family law, providing strategic and pragmatic representation to achieve the best outcome possible for her clients. Ms. Jamison focuses her family law practice on helping her clients evaluate their rights and options and navigate the complex issues - emotional, financial, and lifestyle - inherent in family law cases. Ms. Jamison handles all phases of the negotiation and litigation of domestic relations cases, including divorce, equitable distribution, child custody, child support, spousal support/alimony, protection from abuse, and prenuptial and postnuptial agreements.

Ms. Jamison received her Bachelor of Arts cum laude from Villanova University and her Juris Doctor from Villanova University School of Law. She is admitted to practice before the Pennsylvania Bar, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. Ms. Jamison is an active member of the Family Law Sections of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, the Montgomery Bar Association, and the Bucks County Bar Association. She is also an active member of the Doris Jonas Freed American Inn of Court and serves on the Executive Board. Ms. Jamison is a continuing legal education speaker on family law topics for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.
