Biography

Daniel ("Dan") J. Pietaro is a member of the firm's Business & Finance practice group, where he focuses on business and corporate law. He serves as a trusted advisor to owners and key leadership of closely held businesses, guiding them through a wide range of transactions with a practical, strategic approach. Dan represents business owners in a variety of transactional matters, including business formation, governance, mergers and acquisitions, succession planning, and shareholder, limited liability company, and partnership agreements.

Dan earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he served as Executive Editor of the Journal of Technology Law & Policy and was a recipient of the Governor's Scholarship. He is a graduate of the University of Delaware where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science.

Prior to joining AMM Law, Dan was an attorney at Delaware's largest law firm, where he provided counsel and legal opinions in connection with a wide array of matters involving Delaware limited liability companies and limited partnerships. Dan previously was legal counsel at a US/UK digital healthcare company.

Outside of the office, Dan enjoys snowboarding, distance running, and learning Italian.
